Shri G.K.Beriwal, learned Dy. A.G. for the State/respondent No.2.

Heard.

The applicant by this application seeks restoration of the civil revision No. 794/1995 to its original number as the same has been dismissed as per directions of this Court vide order dated 02.03.2005 whereby the applicant was directed remove the default within a period of one week, failing which the revision shall be liable for dismissal without reference to the Bench.

Learned counsel for the applicant submits that after passing of the above order a communication was sent to the applicant to do the needful, however, the applicant could not respond to his communication within time and as a result of which the revision was dismissed as per directions of this Court. He further submits that the applicant is ready to remove the default and therefore, the civil revision which was dismissed for default may be restored.

In view of above, the application is allowed and the revision petition is directed to be restored to its original number. However, fine of Rs. 100/- is imposed on the applicant for non compliance of the order passed earlier which shall be payable to the High Court Legal Service Authority, Bilaspur.
